2. Kids of daily wage workers (a bit of stability, like a maid, zomato delivery boy etc.)
 - Students who have shifted recently that's why they couldn't get admission to schools, so coming to us to keep their learning going smoothly.
 - Students who go to government schools.
3. Kids from a lower middle-class family
 - Parents try their level hard to provide quality education to kids despite earning very less, but kids don't get quality education in those schools, coming to us as their tuition class.
 - Those who don't go to school at all.
4. Kids who were begging.

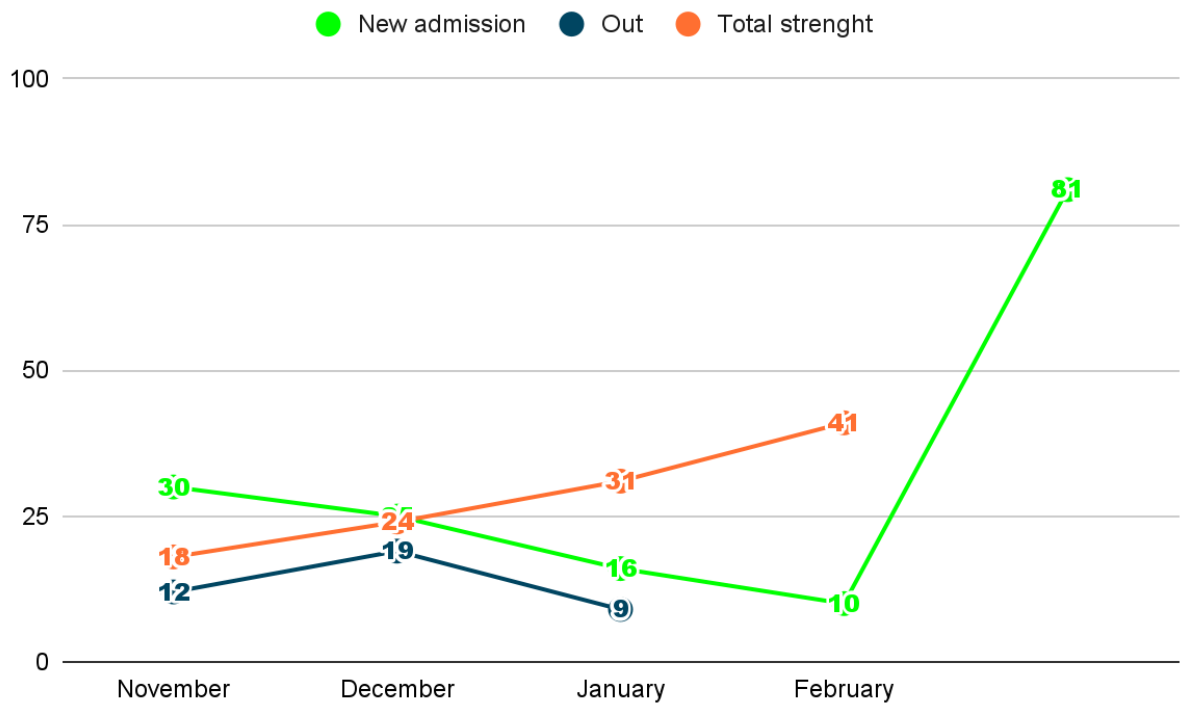

Total Students 81

Challenges

It was a bit tough to make the kids from jhuggi keep coming to the centre, although we have to go searching for them to bring them back to the class for studies.

Some of these kids were addicted to 'nasha', 'jua' and had bad habits, it was very tough for them to focus and sit silently in the class, we made the class in a happening way that they could learn while playing itself.

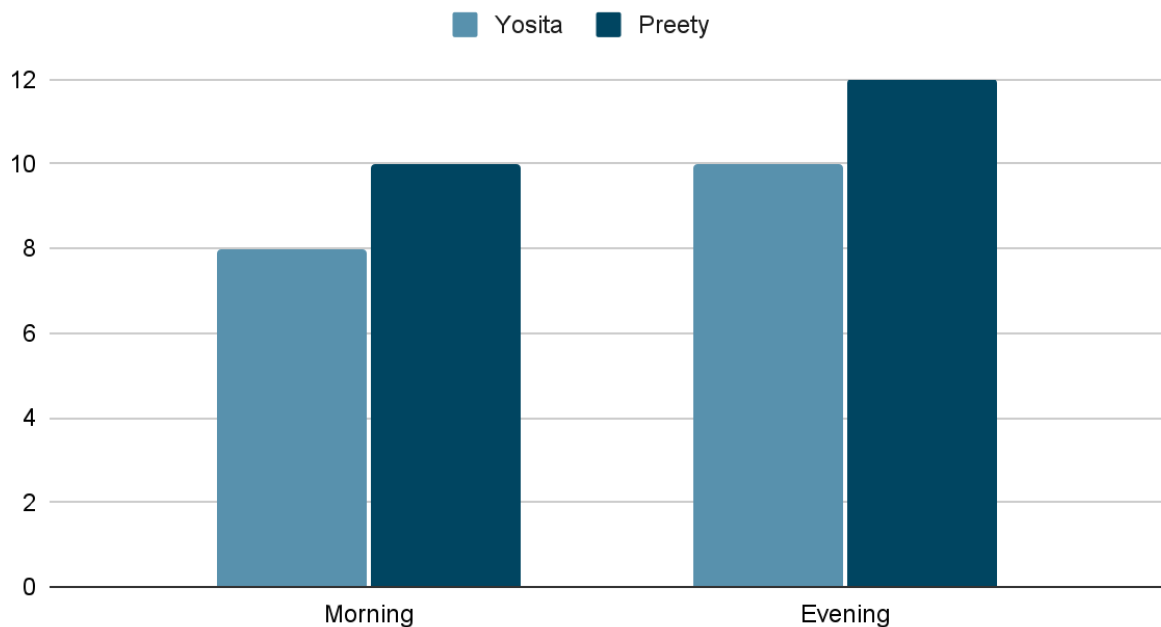

Result

In these past 3 months, we saw many changes in the students' behaviours and learning curves.

1. Now we don't have to go searching for them, they come on themselves for studies.
2. They have started staying neat and clean, and disciplined.
3. We are getting students every single day due to our very positive impression in the society.
